

We are asking for support to limit AHPRA's scope and activities against medical practitioners.

1 in 3 practitioners can expect to have an education/mentoring/supervisory activity imposed on them within the next 10 years.

In practices I have worked, up to 50% of doctors have significant stories to tell.

I have heard stories of practitioners undertaking suicide or retiring permanently to avoid the harassment and sanctions.

No Appeal is possible against AHPRA decisions and often Medical Defence won't fund an appeal either. We have chosen a different direction for our campaign.
